

Quotation is issued to the client including direct link to the Credit Application form, which must be completed and returned in order to allow account to be activated. Client accepts quotation, Account is active and confirms this in writing and ready to receive returns completed Credit samples. Application Form. Your dedicated client service coordinator is assigned to you, activates project using the accounts details provided and will confirm credit status. ALS require payment via credit card prior to releasing results if credit account is not granted.

Connect with us!